

The Distinct 1-J on line registration for the convention on April 1-3rd, 2011 is now live.

<http://www.lionsclubregistry.com/> (click District 1-J link)

For new registrations, password to access the registration page: district1j

Lions who registered last year just enter your usid and password to enter your site, click the edit link which is located in the 1st column (Date/Payment) in your area and update your information, after all is updated, click edit at the bottom of the registration page.

You will then be directed to your summary page where you can send in check, or pay by pay pal/credit card/debit card.

If you have other names on your registration that are not needed this year, space through the name, address etc. to delete the person. Also, forget your usid or password? You can receive on line (do check your junk mail area) or contact Lion Perry.

Training tools for the on-line system are at:

<http://www.district1jlions.org/2011convinfo.htm> or click here:

New this year is pay by pay pal or pay by credit/debit card.

Distinct 1-J is trying to make registration easier so that you can attend the convention.
