Fellow Cabinet Members,

I had a good time and an informative meeting with the Big Rock Lions Club. I also visited them at the Big Rock Plowing Match. They have a cow chip bingo stand. The cow wasn't very cooperative, despite being fed clover and anything else that the members thought would make it go. Since suggesting ideas is one of my goals for the year, I suggested they use a goose next year. At a meeting with Lee Lions, I listened to and participated in a discussion about their pancake supper that I helped with. There was also discussion about the Quest program with the Shabbona and Waterman clubs. I suggested and answered questions about starting a Leo club. My Waterman club visit included a delicious steak dinner for Lion Cindy and myself. I helped Lion Dave pass out numerous attendance awards. The 2nd Annual Gobbler Gallop was discussed, and I will again wield a knife for the slicing of the bagels. After the meeting, a game testing wives and husbands knowledge about each other was enjoyed by the members. Our 2nd round of region meetings will kick off Oct. 28 with the round table discussion theme "What's Bugging You?" I have an upcoming visit with a club that may be losing some members due to the cost of the dues (which includes a meal at the meeting for $5.00). That's about it for now. Our zone chair mtgs. continue to be fruitful.

Yours in Service

Lion Chris Halsey, Zone Chair SW Region
