RE: Goals for Lion Year 2009-2010

Last Lion Year, it became clear to me that my mission for Lion Year 2009-2010 should be to acquire some Region Reporters to assist with gathering information for the monthly issues of the 1-J Journal. Being able to divide end-of-the-month reports to several Lions around the District will, hopefully, make it easier at wrap-up time.

I was fortunate to have five Lions throughout District 1-J answer my call.

Eastern Region -- Glendale Heights Barangay Lion Jess Galvez

Central Region -- South Elgin Lion Paul Groth

Fox River Region -- Sun City-Huntley Lion Jack Anderson, PDG, and Dundee Township Lion Michael Dewey

Southwestern Region, Starting with the Sept. issue, Elburn Lion Anna Mainhart

In July, I sent out my first communication of the Lion Year via e-mail to each region's Club Presidents & Secretaries, and Zone Chairs, about the change in my method of operation for this coming Lion Year. For the August issue, I still had a number send information to me, but that was easily forwarded to the proper Region Reporter. Old habits are hard to break! I do think as the year goes along it will correct itself and we should be working as I had hoped.

As an Associate Editor of the IL State Magazine, I sent in copy and photos for the Sep/Oct Illinois State Magazine on Aug. 6th. Deadlines are to be a bit earlier this year than in previous ones. As a result, I am making the deadline for Journal copy to be the 4th of the month.

From recent photos I received, I was able to assemble several photo albums: Camp Lions, 1-J Fishing Derby, and Gov. George's Trip to Minneapolis, for Lion Dave Stryker to post on the 1-J website. This is a great way to pass along some of the many photos I receive.
