Subject: Goals Update

It that date, April 9-11 seems a long time off. However, it comes fast, and the team is well into working on the event.

Lion Lynn Raske has plans to expand the booklet, and Lion Perry Knutson is arranging for the registration to be online.

Lion Sue Crosson-Knutson is planning a Friday talent show.

The Governor and First Lady have made menu choices, and despite e-mails to the effect, it will not be hot dogs and hash. These are to be approved by the cabinet.

The usual political shenanigans will take place, our schooling and business sessions will be held, and hospitality rooms.

Three rooms are set aside for the District, and twin Vice District Governors. We have about two or three other rooms, depending on requirements.

We are going to work on a picture set up for photos. It seems bringing the photo participants out away from the head table will make for better photos.

Continue to urge attendance at part of the event, if not all.
