RE: Status Report for Lion Year 2009-2010

The good news -- yes, using Region Reporters is working well.

On the downside -- Now that Lion Paul Groth has accepted a Zone Chair position, he has requested that he no longer be a Region Reporter after this Lion Year. Currently, he is continuing to assemble Journal material for the Central Region.

Heads UP!! I am now looking for a Lion to assume the Central Region Reporter position starting no later than the end of this 2009-2010 Lion Year. If anyone on the Cabinet hears of anyone who might be interested in this position, please contact me at skw140@aol.com.

When you go to your respective Region Meetings, thank these Lions for their help in putting out the 1-J Journal:

Eastern Region -- Glendale Heights Barangay Lion Jess Galvez
Central Region -- South Elgin Lion Paul Groth
Fox River Region -- Sun City-Huntley Lion Jack Anderson, PDG, and Dundee Township Lion Michael Dewey
Southwestern Region -- Elburn Lion Anna Mainhart

Several more photo albums have been added to the District 1-J website. With Picasa, it is not difficult to accomplish this and it is a great way to pass along some of the many photos I receive.

As an Associate Editor of the IL State Magazine, I have now sent in copy for three issues of the Illinois State Magazine this Lion Year. Deadlines for the magazine are a bit earlier this year than previously. It is now the 6th of the month, rather than the 10th. Keep that in mind if you wish to submit anything for the State Magazine. By the same token, Journal deadlines are somewhat earlier, too. For those that want to get material into the issue, I would like copy by the 4th of the month.

A brief reminder for photos that are to be printed in the IL State Magazine -- high resolution is a must. Digital photos should be no smaller than 3" x 3" and have at least 300 dots per inch (dpi) resolution. A higher resolution number is no problem.
